About our Event Planning

The Sickles Market Event Design Team believes that both small and large scale projects demand the highest quality and attention to detail. We work within any budget. Our clients may be interested in a complete five course dining experience or simply, centerpieces paired with delectable appetizers.

Depending on your needs, we offer a variety of services. We may work with the bride right from the engagement. We may guide the couple a few months out OR be on-site only on the wedding day. For any event, we are dedicated to accomplishing everything on your to-do list in a timely manner.

We can transform any raw space into your dream location or we can reimagine a room at the venue of your choice with custom details. There's no color scheme or design that surpasses our capabilities.
